ORGANIZATION OF THE BOOK
The selection of which demographic factors to include in the book was guided by the 2000 Census, in a detailed initial review of the data. The results were selected to provide a good cross-section of demographic data, provide some useful information for the user, and to be of interest to a wide range of professionals.
The data paragraphs in this state volume provide a basic demographic profile for each county, and selected county subdivisions and places. Complete profiles are included for selected areas, usually those a population equivalent. Many profiles are included for all available items. Tabulated profiles for all items may be found on the internet at http://www.polidata.com
Each basic demographic profile is composed of data paragraphs (five for basic geographic and demographic; the data paragraphs cover the following subject areas):
• Geography 2000: type of unit, and within the state, population density and population equivalent.
• Population 2000: basic demographic factors including age, sex, education, marital and ethnic status, and non-Hispanic ethnicity.
• Family 2000: number of families, and type of family composition (two-person, three-person, etc.)
• Demography 2000: summary of selected demographic factors (SES indicators, home value, etc.)
• Industry 2000: summary of selected economic factors (SES indicators and a broad indicator of industry composition)
• Religion 2000: summary of selected religious factors (SES indicators and a broad indicator of religious composition)
• Political 2000: summary of selected political factors (SES indicators and a broad indicator of political composition)
• Presidential 2000: summary of selected presidential election results (SES indicators and a broad indicator of presidential election results)
• Religious 2000: summary of selected religious affiliation results (SES indicators and a broad indicator of religious affiliation results)
• Religious 2000: summary of selected religious affiliation results (SES indicators and a broad indicator of religious affiliation results)
• Religious 2000: summary of selected religious affiliation results (SES indicators and a broad indicator of religious affiliation results)
